

WEBINAR

Migration to Europe: Converging Crimes / Diverging Policies?

3 December 2020 | 16.30 - 18.00 CET

via Zoom | Register here

The webinar will provide a unique opportunity to discuss the current state of European migration policies and issues. It builds upon the expertise of renowned participants from European and International institutions and the latest findings of Transcrime's project Flows (funded by PMI Impact) on crime convergence. This webinar is particularly timely, given the constant evolution of migration flows toward Europe and the growing need for a balanced and sustainable policy reform.

Info: transcrime@unicatt.it

- The webinar will be held in English -

Alberto Aziani
Senior Researcher,
Transcrime -
Università Cattolica
del Sacro Cuore

Speaker

Laura Ferrara
Member of the European Parliament
(LIBE Committee)

Speaker

Maysa Ayoub
Associate Director of the Center for Migration
and Refugee Studies,
American University
in Cairo

Speaker

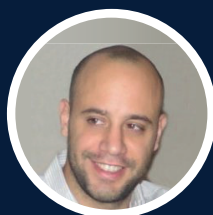

Ernesto U. Savona
Director,
Transcrime -
Università Cattolica
del Sacro Cuore

MODERATOR

Fabrizio Sarrica
Research Expert,
United Nations Office
on Drugs and Crime

Speaker

Luigi Achilli
Marie Curie Fellow, European University Institute

Speaker

Giovanni Cioffi
Policy Officer,
European Commission
(DG Migration and Home Affairs)

Speaker

SPEAKERS' SHORT BIO

Ernesto U. Savona

Director of Transcrime from 1994 until today. Professor of Criminology at Università Cattolica in Milan and University of Palermo. Before at Università degli Studi di Trento and at University of Rome La Sapienza. . From 1990 to 1994, visiting fellow and project director at the National Institute of Justice, Research Centre of the U.S. Dept. of Justice, Washington D.C. President of the European Society of Criminology for the years 2003/2004. Chair of the Global Agenda Council on Organized Crime of the World Economic Forum for the term 2011-2012. He is member of the EU Commission experts group on Policy needs for data on crime. Since 2003 he is Editor in Chief of the European Journal on Criminal Policy and Research of Springer. Speaker at main international conferences he is author, editor and co-editor of several books, chapters and articles on organized and economic crime.

Maysa Ayoub

the Associate Director of the Center for Migration and Refugee Studies (CMRS) at the American University in Cairo (AUC). Her research interests include Migration Policies, Integration and livelihoods of minorities, and Diaspora and Transnationalism.

Laura Ferrara

Lawyer with a Ph.D. in Theory and History of Human Rights at the University of Florence. Activist of the M5S, elected to the European Parliament in 2014 and in 2019, she is full member of the LIBE Committee (Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs) and Delegation to the ACP-EU Joint Parliamentary Assembly, substitute member of the TRAN Committee (Transport and Tourism) and Delegation for relations with Australia and New Zealand. She was rapporteur of the report on common procedure for international protection in the Union, of the report on the situation of fundamental rights in Europe (2013 and 2014), of the report on the fight against corruption and follow up of the CRIM resolution, of the report on public access to documents and of the implementation report of the environmental liability directive.

Alberto Aziani

Assistant Professor of Criminology at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Milan and Researcher at Transcrime. His main research interests are Transnational Crimes, Organized Crime, Illicit Markets, and Illicit Financial Flows. On these topics, he has conducted studies and developed projects for international organizations and funding institutions.

Giovanni Cioffi

EU official since 2010. He has been working in the field of migration policy since 2014. He covered various dossier including return policy, migration management through the hotspot approach in Southern Italy in the years 2017 and 2018, and as of 2019 fight against migrant smuggling, in particular cooperation with third countries and irregular migration through the Central Mediterranean route. He hold a Master Degree in International Relations from the University of Naples L'Orientale and a Postgraduate master in European Affairs from College of Europe in Bruges.

Luigi Achilli

Marie Curie Fellow at the European University Institute. He holds a Ph.D. in social anthropology from the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS). His work focuses on irregular migration, forced displacement, smuggling networks and transnational crime.

Fabrizio Sarrica

Leading the UNODC Research Team on Trafficking in Persons and Smuggling of Migrants since April 2016, he is the leading author of the UNODC Global Report on Trafficking in Persons since 2012. He is the authors of a list of studies and international reports in the field of trafficking in persons and smuggling of migrants. He holds a PhD in Criminology, a MA in International Relations and Economics, and University degree in Economics.